

JULIA MICHELLE NONPROFIT

223 Campus Drive
Boone NC 28608
Julian@yahoo.com

4455 Raleigh Drive
Raleigh NC 88000
222-222-2222

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE ANTHROPOLOGY, Minor: Women's Studies, May 20XX

Appalachian State University, Boone NC

Honors and Awards

Dean's list: 3 semesters

Chancellor's list: 2 semesters

Relevant Coursework

Women and Gender in Anthropology; Social Issues and Ethics; Women's Issues in Counseling; Women in History; Women's Health; Women, Crime and Criminal Justice; Women and the Law

NONPROFIT EXPERIENCE

CRISIS LINE INTERN/VOLUNTEER

Opposing Abuse with Service, Information and Shelter (OASIS), Boone NC, September 20XX-present

Oasis is a nonprofit organization that provides services and support for victims of family violence and sexual assault.

- Complete on-going training in risk assessment and counseling for crisis hotline
- Provide crisis intervention, referrals to other community services and information about the legal system to victims of domestic violence
- Educate the community about OASIS through outreach presentations to religious affiliated programs, schools and various organizations
- Recruited and trained 5 crisis line volunteers
- Research and write articles about domestic violence to be included in the monthly newsletter. Articles have included: Is your partner abusing you? and Signs to look for in a battering personality

ADVOCACY INTERNSHIP

The National Council of Women's Organizations (NCWO), Washington DC, May 20XX-August 20XX

NCWO is a bipartisan network of more than one hundred women's organizations working to advocate change on many issues of importance to women.

New Faces, More Voices

- Participated in a six-session training program on coalition building, public speaking, advocacy, history of the women's movement, feminist policy issues, and the legislative process
- Developed activist and organizing skills important for building feminist change and achieving social equality
- Engaged in interactive workshops, seminars, and small group discussions led by expert trainers and national leaders from the women's policy community

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Member: National Organization for Women (NOW), May 20XX-present

- Attended 2 national conferences which included workshops and programs on women in the workplace, women in entertainment, and women of courage

Member: Circle K, September 20XX-present

- Complete various community service projects as a team and individually with nonprofit organizations in Watauga County including Watauga Youth Network, Humane Society and Hunger Coalition